CHAPTER 4

Collections 101 Course
April 30, 2014
Houston
TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. INTRODUCTION ................................................................................................................................. 1

II. TURNING A JUDGMENT INTO MONEY – THE CHALLENGES OF COLLECTING UNSECURED DEBTS................................................................................................................................. 1
   A. Unsecured Debts Defined ............................................................................................................... 1
   B. Focus of This Paper Collecting Unsecured Debts – The Challenges Facing the Judgment Creditor... 1

III. THE CHALLENGE OF COLLECTING IN A DEBTOR FRIENDLY JURISDICTION ......................... 1
   A. Defining a Debtor Friendly Jurisdiction – A Land Without Wage Garnishment, Homestead Foreclosures or Auto Seizures ................................................................. 1
      1. Wage Garnishment ................................................................................................................ 1
      2. Sale or Foreclosure of Homesteads to Satisfy Non-Purchase Money Debts .................. 2
      3. Seizure or Sale of Automobiles To Satisfy Non-Purchase Money Judgment Creditors .... 2
   B. The Challenge Defined ................................................................................................................. 2
      1. The Source of The Challenge – Exemption Laws ................................................................. 2
      2. The Homestead and Personal Property Exemption – A Historical Background ............... 2
      3. The Challenge Summarized ................................................................................................. 2

IV. KNOWLEDGE, PERSISTENCE AND LUCK – FINDING MONEY IN A DEBTOR FRIENDLY JURISDICTION................................................................................................................................. 3
   A. Example 1: Collecting a Real Estate Deficiency – or How to Go From a Texas Condo to a Florida Orange Grove ....................................................................................................................... 3
   B. Pursuing the Debtor .................................................................................................................... 3
   C. The Keys to Success .................................................................................................................... 3
      1. Knowledge – Which Creditor Had the Advantage? ................................................................. 3
      2. Persistence: Whose Advantage? ............................................................................................ 3
      3. Luck: Whose Advantage? ....................................................................................................... 3

V. EXAMPLE NO. 2 – FOLLOWING THE RED CADILLAC TO LAS VEGAS AND BACK ......................... 3
   A. The Factual Background ......................................................................................................... 3
   B. Solving the Conundrum ............................................................................................................ 4
   C. Keys to Success ....................................................................................................................... 4

VI. FINDING THE DEBTOR ................................................................................................................. 4
   A. Finding The Debtor, Especially When Not Represented by Counsel, Is Critical To Collection .... 4

VII. POST JUDGMENT DISCOVERY AND THE COURTHOUSE – IT’S EASIER TO SETTLE WHEN THE DEBTOR IS UNDER ARREST ................................................................................................................. 5
   A. The Steps to the Courthouse .................................................................................................... 5
   B. The CPA and the Elevator Man, or Sometimes You Hit a Gusher and Sometimes a Dry Hole....... 5
      1. The CPA – the Gusher ......................................................................................................... 5
      2. The Elevator Man – The Dry Hole ...................................................................................... 5

VIII. TYPES OF DISCOVERY ............................................................................................................ 5
   A. Non-Judicial Discovery .............................................................................................................. 5
      1. The client’s file as a source of information ........................................................................... 5
         i. Locating Other Liable Parties ......................................................................................... 5
         ii. Locating Collateral or Other Non-Exempt Assets ....................................................... 6
         iii. Specific Information About the Debtor ........................................................................ 6
      2. Outside Sources – Credit Reports and Asset Searches .................................................... 6
      3. Locating the Debtor ............................................................................................................ 6
         i. The Internet ..................................................................................................................... 6
         ii. Address Correction by Post Office .............................................................................. 6
         iii. Other Sources of Information .................................................................................... 6
         iv. Physical Inspection of a Debtor’s Home or Business .................................................. 6
IX. JUDICIAL POST JUDGMENT DISCOVERY
   A. The Options: Interrogatories vs. Depositions
      1. Interrogatories
      2. Depositions and Their Advantages
   B. Summary of Deposition Advantages
   C. Controlling Costs – The Major Downside of Depositions

X. ANALYSIS OF TAX RETURNS AND REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
   A. The Requests for Production
   B. Analyzing Tax Returns
      1. Personal Returns
         a) Income Section
            i. Interest and Dividends (Schedule B)
            ii. Tax Refunds
            iii. Capital Gains and Losses (Schedule D)
            iv. Supplemental Income
      b) Itemized Deductions
      c) Miscellaneous Expenses
      2. Business Returns
         a) Sole Proprietorships
            i. Accounting Method
            ii. Income
            iii. Expenses
         b) Corporations and Partnerships
            i. Difference Between Taxable Income and Cash Flow
            ii. Losses

XI. INTERROGATORIES V. DEPOSITIONS TO PAPER

XII. DEPOSITION TECHNIQUE
    A. The Goal of a Deposition
    B. Using A Check List
    C. Style

XIII. DANGERS IN POST JUDGMENT COLLECTION
    A. Post Judgment Collection is Not all Fun and Games
    B. How Not To Pursue a Business Judgment
    C. How to Pursue a Business Judgment Confronting The Identity Has Changed Defense
       1. The Common Defense – We Are Not That Company
       2. How to Overcome the “We Are Not The Judgment Debtor Defense”

XIV. CONCLUSION

APPENDIX