

This portion of the handbook was adapted from the Oregon State Bar Professional Liability Fund handbook, Planning Ahead: A Guide to Protecting Your Clients' Interests in the Event of Your Disability or Death, Copyright 2009. All rights are reserved except that members of the State Bar of Texas may use this material for assistance with their own law practice or to help another attorney close his or her office. Judges, relatives of attorneys, attorney staff and members of the public may also use this material to maintain or close a practice, or to facilitate the transition to new counsel when a Texas attorney is no longer able to practice law. This material may also be reproduced for classroom instruction or for use by a not-for-profit organization, provided that such use is for informational, non-commercial purposes only and any reproduction of this material acknowledges original publication of this material by the Oregon State Bar Professional Liability Fund and notes if the material was adapted with permission of the Oregon State Bar Professional Liability Fund.